TRECCANI

A voyage to change perspective

Treccani is pleased to once again open the doors of the Venice Biennale to its guests, to allow them to observe the new worlds of art and culture from an intimate viewpoint.

An experience lasting three days, during which to experience the Architecture and the Music of the future as protagonists: sharing a dialogue with the artistic directors, participating in private visits and lessons, listening to world premier concerts from the front row.

*The Biennale:
The future ahead*

At the base of the 18th International Architecture Exhibition of The Biennale, curated by Lesley Lokko, is the construction of a better world: an ideal that you can personally experience thanks to private tours and guides dedicated to each section of the exhibition, to dialogue in the most constructive way with the future on the themes of decolonisation and decarbonisation.

A futuristic journey that will have an exceptional soundtrack: the 67th International Festival of Contemporary Music. Live radio broadcasts, world premier concerts, meetings with the composers: to always be in the front row before the new horizons of digital sound.

Venice:
a timeless backdrop

The evocative futuristic visions of The Biennale will be framed by the timeless beauty of Venice and its canals, along which the world seems to have stopped, suspended between history and imagination.

A kind of magic in which to completely immerse oneself, through hidden itineraries, sophisticated brunches and dinners embedded within the reflections of the Lagoon, with the presence of its most precious islands.

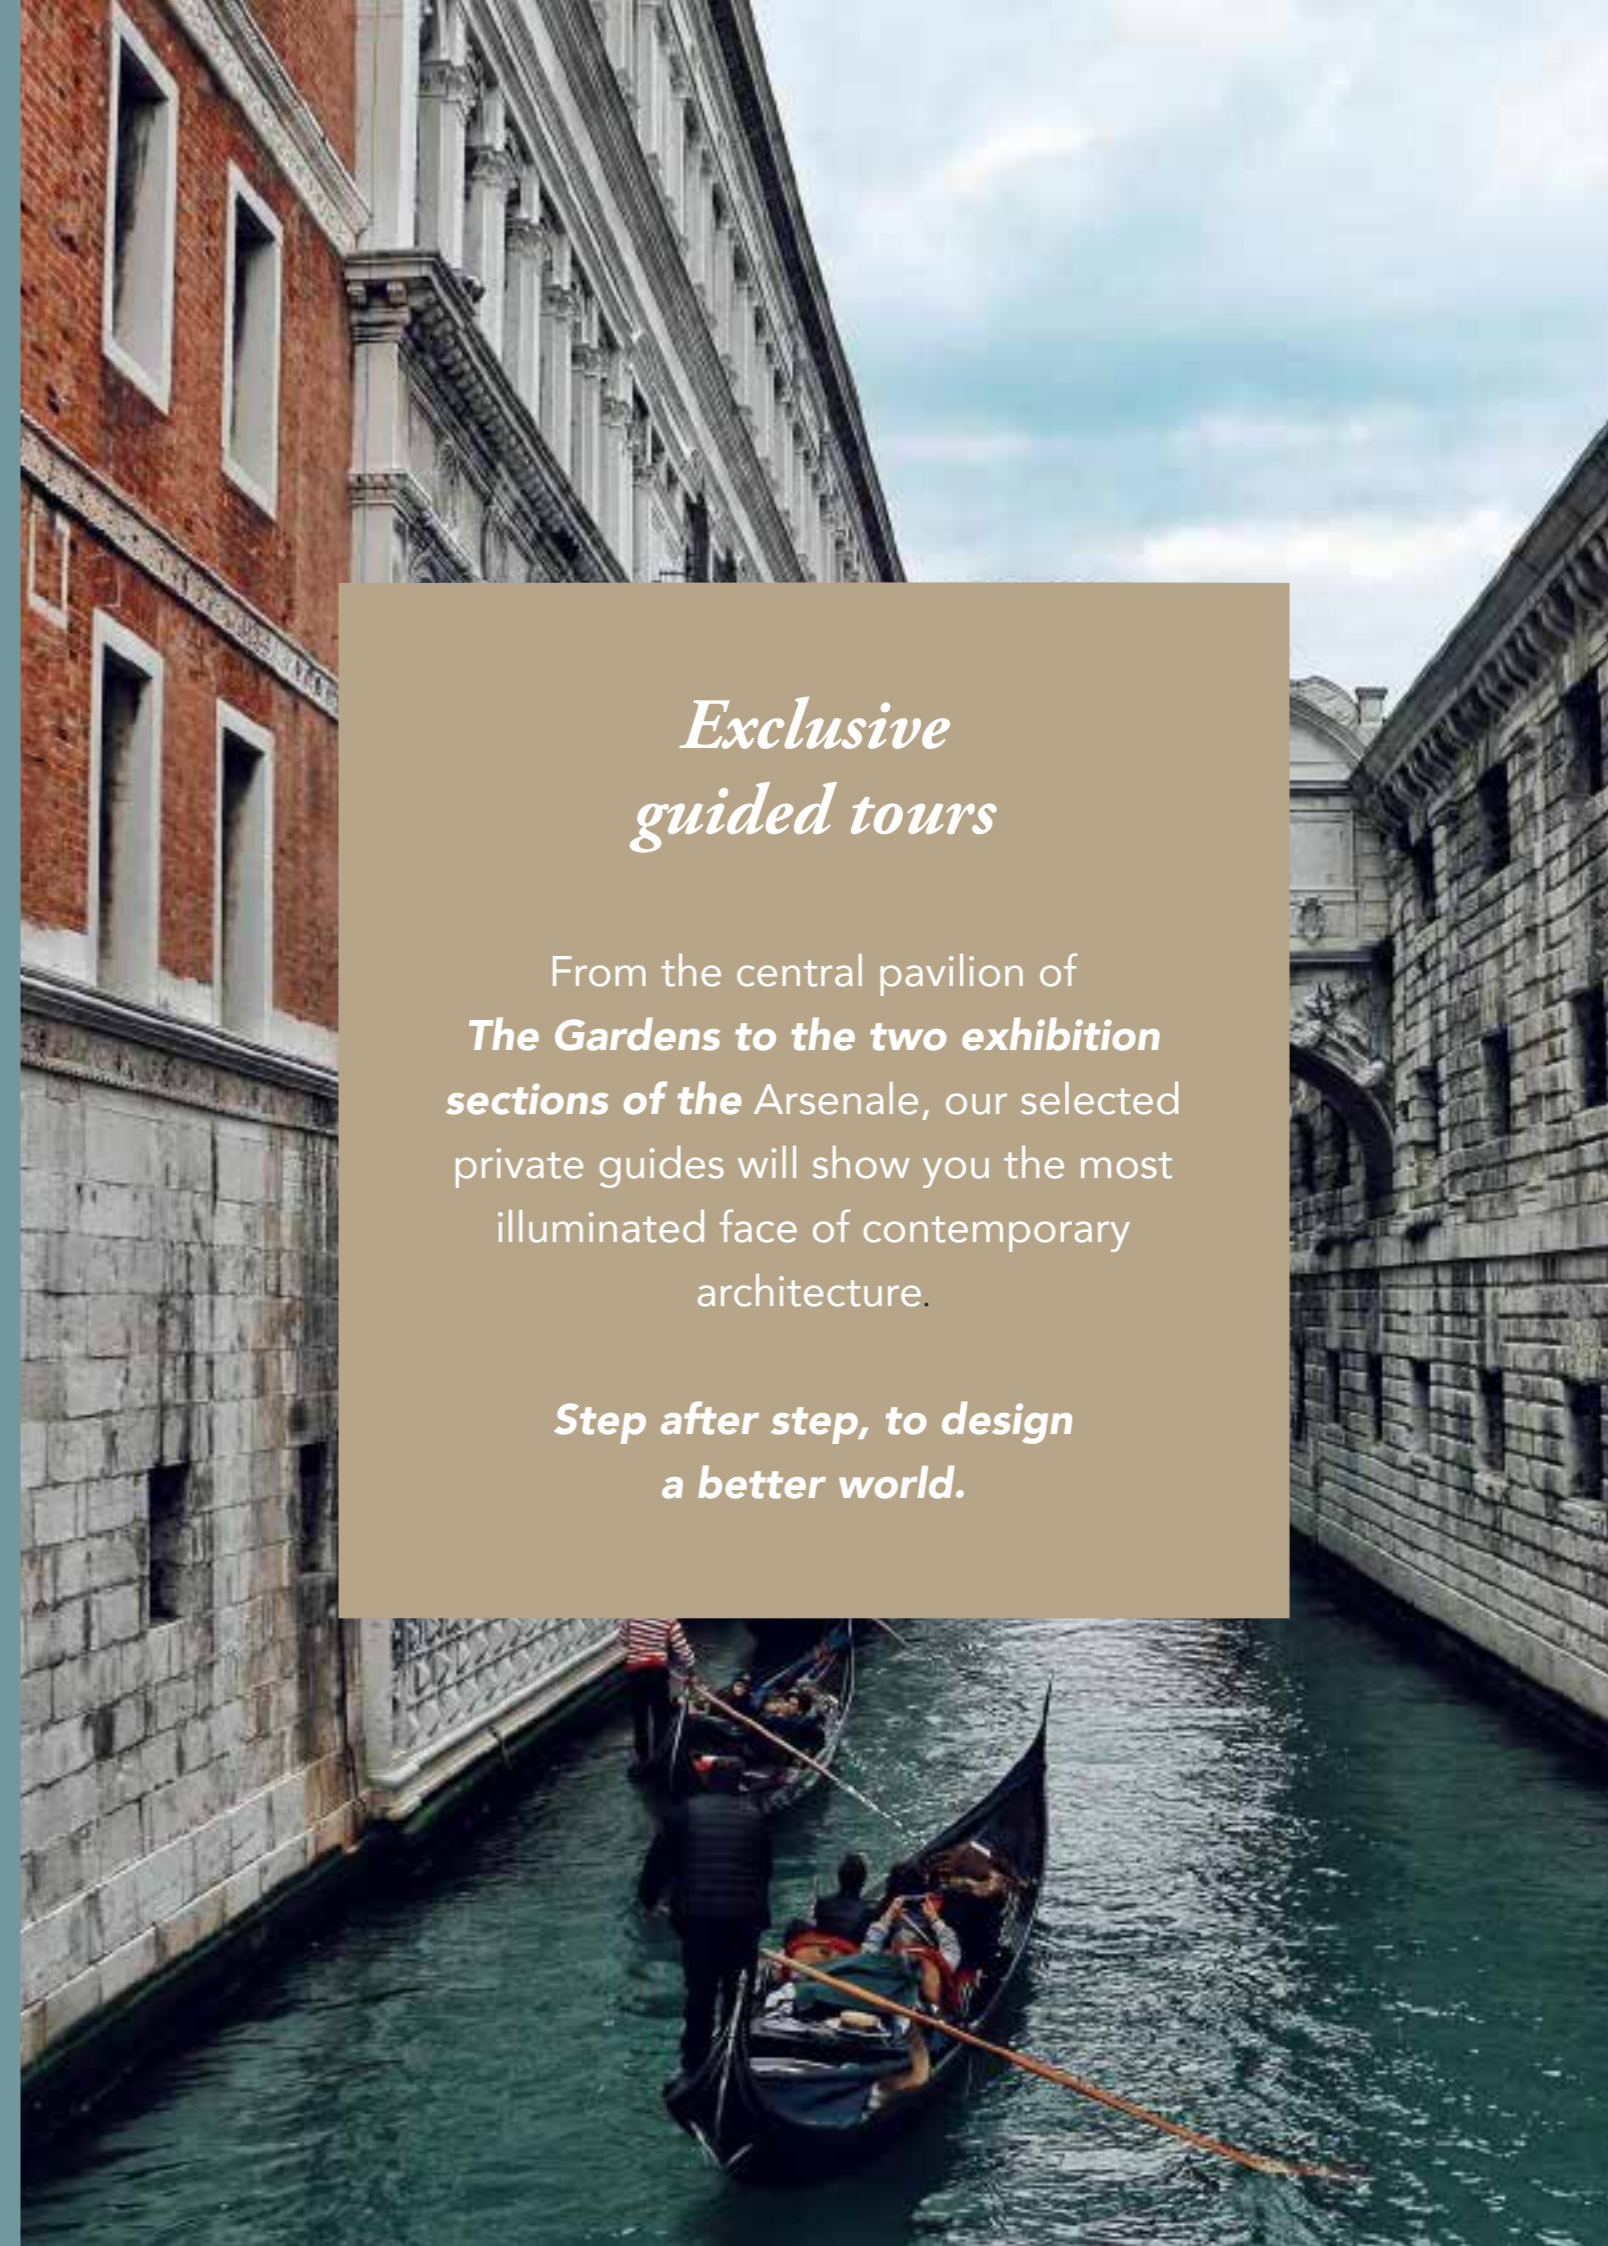

Experience the Biennale

The Biennale of Architecture and the Biennale of Music will be the pillars of an exclusive weekend of profound cultural renewal, along which to learn how to imagine the future by listening to all of its shapes and shades.

Exclusive guided tours

From the central pavilion of The Gardens to the two exhibition sections of the Arsenale, our selected private guides will show you the most illuminated face of contemporary architecture.

Step after step, to design a better world.

Encounter with the Artistic Director

Lucia Ronchetti, artistic director of the 67th International Festival of Contemporary Music, telling you how to listen to digital sound "at the microscope", which is the key to understanding the future of music.

Listening to her words, you will learn how to perceive the movement of sound.

Live music lesson

Live from the historical location of Ca' Giustinian, you will participate in the radio transmission "Lezioni di Musica" on Rai Radio3 to discover the organ repertoire of the Venetian School of the 1500s.

You will have the thrill of experiencing the compositions that have made history in digital music.

The image shows the interior of the Teatro Fenice, a grand opera house with ornate gold-colored architectural details and a red curtain. A teal text box is overlaid on the left side of the image.

*The show of The Biennale
Music in the front row*

Seated in the first row of the Teatro Fenice or at the Teatro Piccolo Arsenale, you will be able to closely observe the world premieres of some of the greatest contemporary composers, such as Brian Eno, Leone d'Oro Career prize of 2023, or Francesca Verunelli.

You will witness a performance that has never been seen before, and especially, one that has never yet been heard.

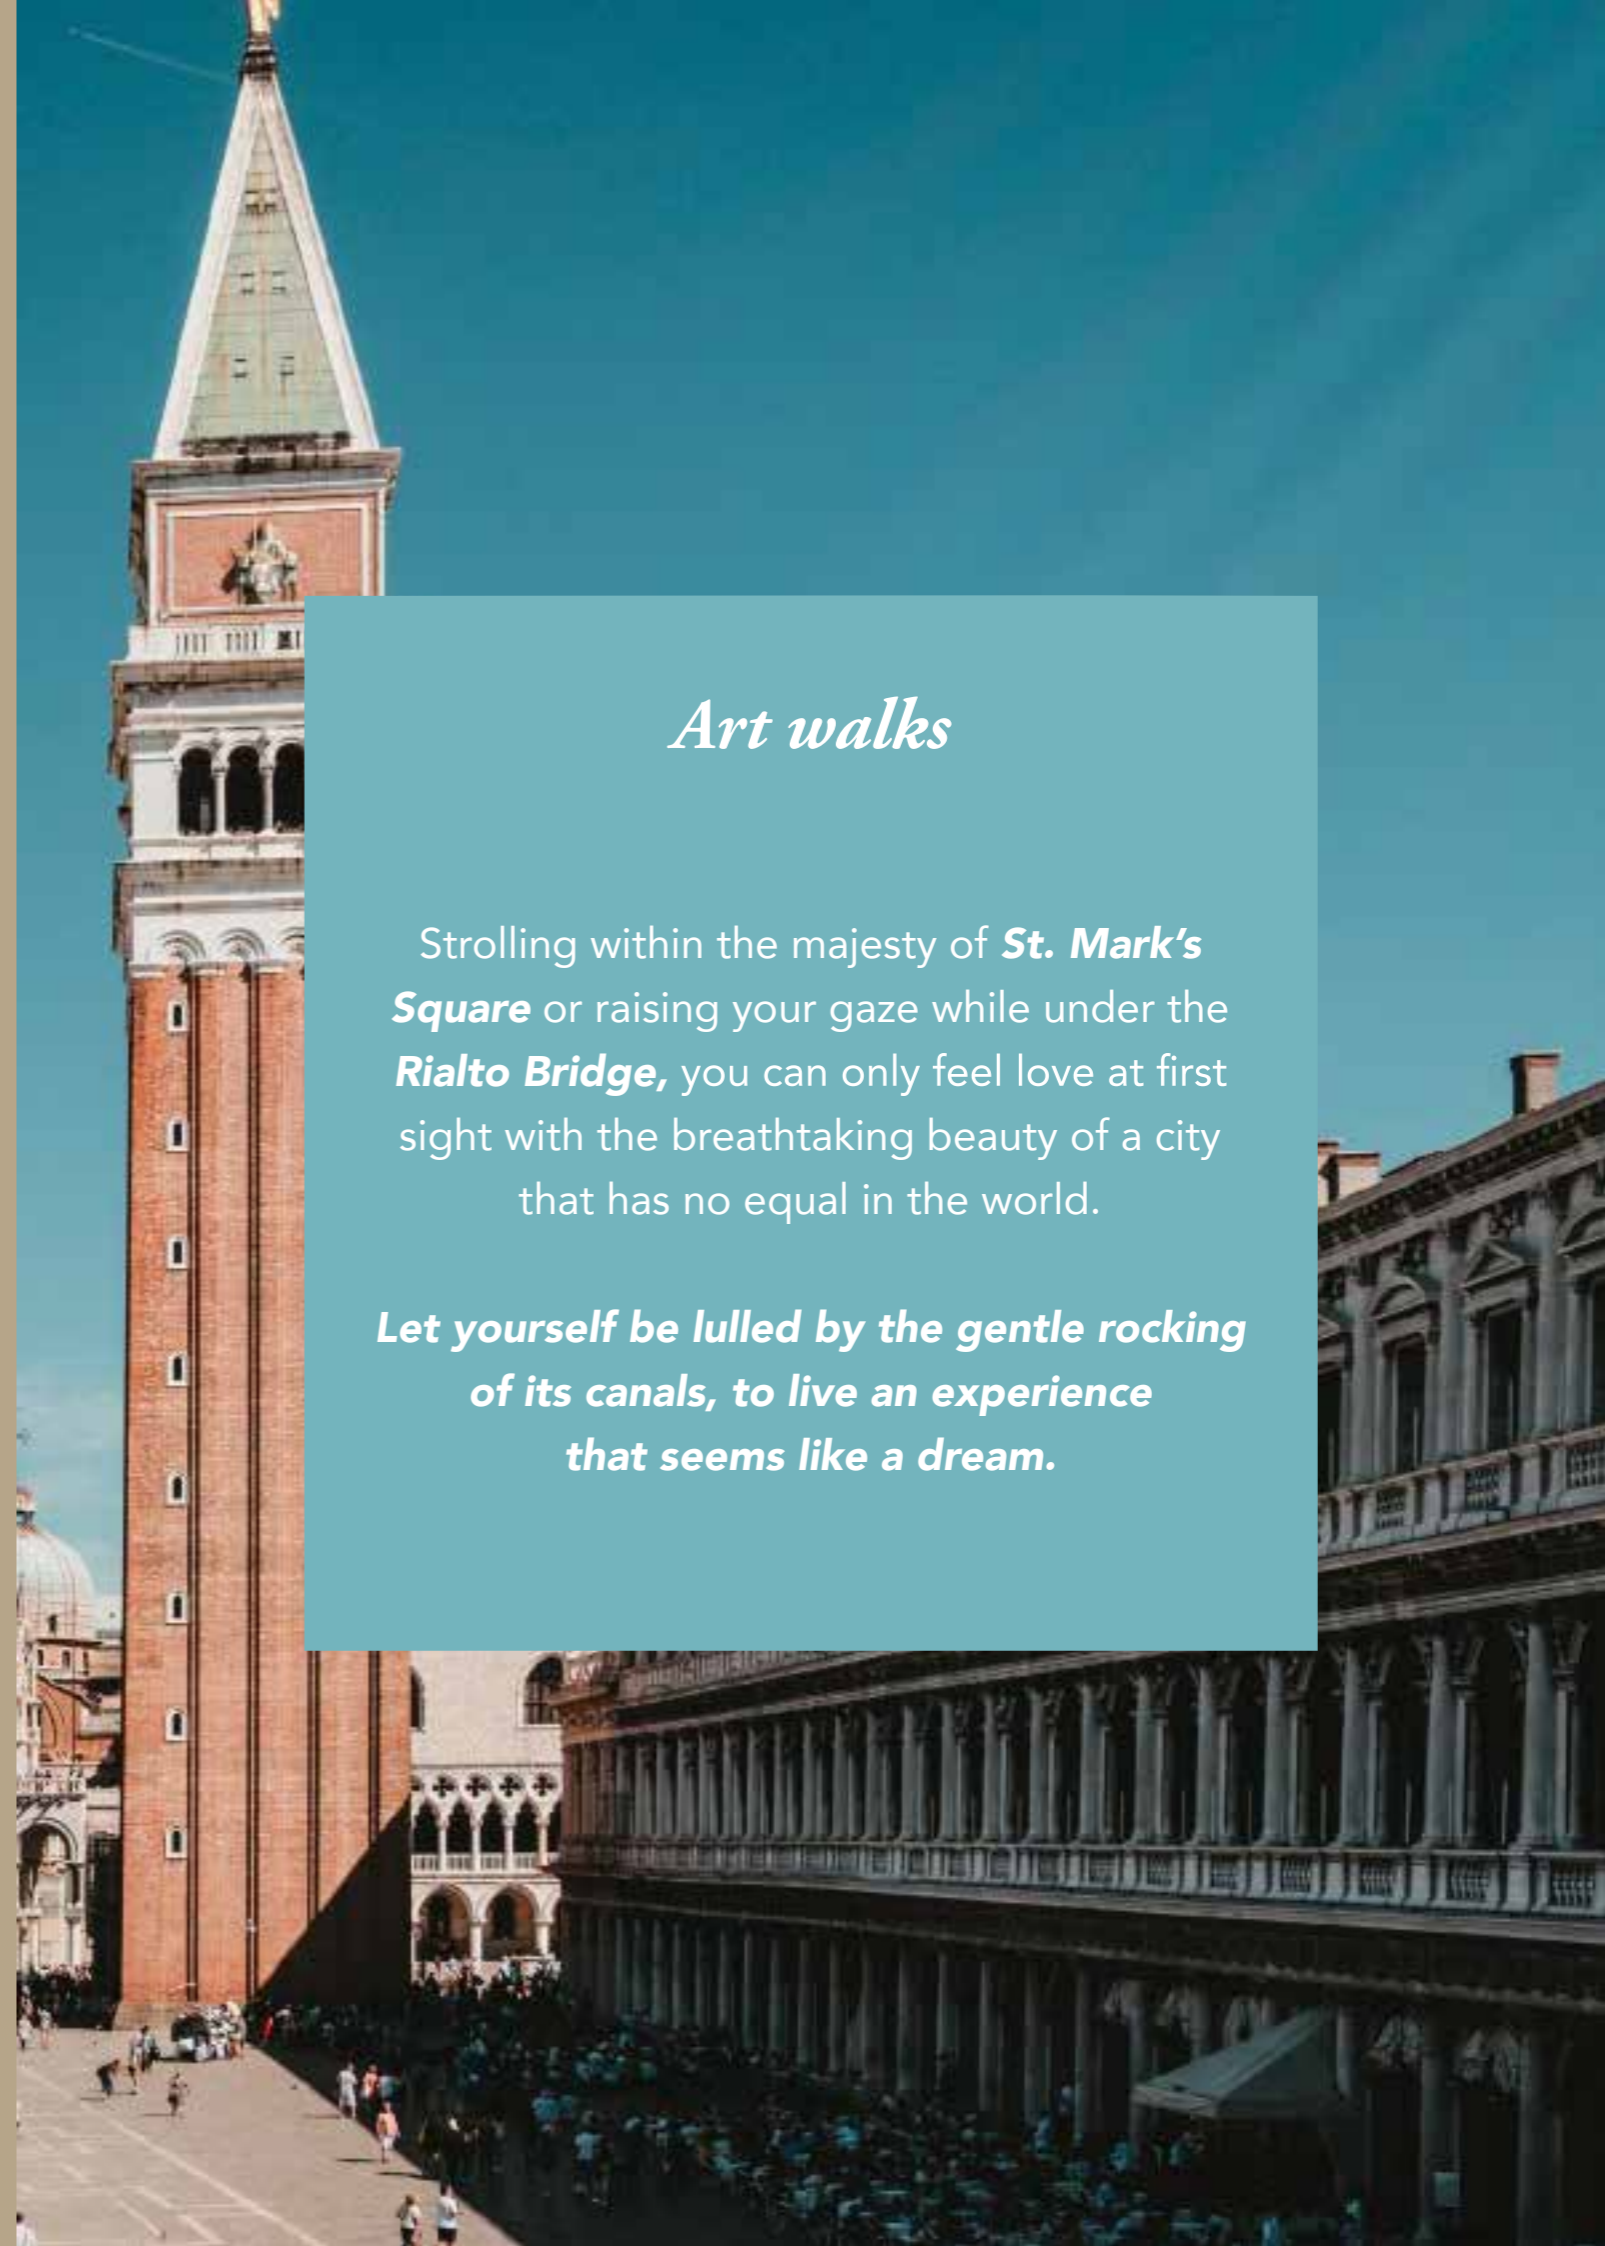

Experience Venice

With its 118 islands and its immortal and romantic charm, Venice will be the ideal bridge to combine future and history in a unique experience that will go beyond the boundaries of time to let you savour every moment.

Art walks

Strolling within the majesty of St. Mark's Square or raising your gaze while under the Rialto Bridge, you can only feel love at first sight with the breathtaking beauty of a city that has no equal in the world.

Let yourself be lulled by the gentle rocking of its canals, to live an experience that seems like a dream.

Food and wine tours

From the characteristic aperitifs, rigorously accompanied by the original spritz, to the Risotto de Gò, with fish from the Lagoon: the magic of Venice is also unique at the table.

With a glass of wine in front of you, its typical flavours will enlighten you.

Dinner in Murano

Famous the world over for its glassmaking, Murano is an island that contains a precious artisan history like few others: the ideal place for a day trip and an enchanting dinner just a breath away from Venice.

In its windows you will see reflected all the charm of an unforgettable weekend.
